

Positive values: omission increases error. Family chosen inside training; no causal interpretation or confidence intervals.